

Basic Budgeting & Help with Money Problems

Free workshops for organisations based in Aston, Erdington & Kitts Green

Are you an organisation based in Aston, Erdington or Kitts Green that has frontline staff, volunteers or service users who require practical information around financial budgeting as well as tips for negotiating favourable repayment arrangements with creditors?

Birmingham Settlement working in partnership with Birmingham Training Unit are running a series of free budgeting workshops designed to help frontline staff support service users and help service users manage their bills and debts effectively.

Workshops last between 1-3 hours. Participants will have a chance to ask questions and receive information on where they can obtain further help. Spaces are limited to 10 Per workshop. Attendees will be required to complete a brief feedback form. Light refreshments will be provided.

To book a workshop for your organisation, contact Maxine Reid on 250 0781 or email office@btu.org.uk.

Funded by Barrow Cadbury Trust an independent charitable foundation, committed to bringing about socially just change.